

E-Enterprise by the Numbers 2024

Drinking Water State-Federal-Tribal Information Exchange System (DW-SFTIES)

Primacy agencies identify a team to plan transition to new system:

COMPLETED

IN PROGRESS

PLANNED

E-Enterprise Community Inventory Platform (EECIP)

2,182

PROJECTS

298

DISCUSSIONS

900

USERS

State Planning Electronic Collaboration System (SPeCS)

50

States submit State Implementation Plans (SIPs), tracking progress toward national clean air goals

1,880+

SIP submissions to date

181

Exceptional events submissions to date

Be Well Informed (BWI)

12 Agencies using BWI

10,602,265

Potential residents served

Combined Air Emissions Reporting System (CAERS)

7 CAERS users: AZ, D.C., GA, ID, ME, MS, and Pima County, AZ

Approximately 1,500 facilities report

New API allows state, local, and tribal users to retrieve industry data for quality assurance, billing, etc.

GA submits data 3 months before EPA deadline

Water Quality Exchange (WQX)

SC is 1st state to use APIs to streamline data flow through EPA's WQX into the Water Quality Portal supporting watershed planning

Tribal Software Licensing

11 Steps for Tribal Environmental Professionals to follow when using federal grant dollars to purchase and support longer-term software needs

Predictive Analytics

16 water systems prevented by AZ from exceeding arsenic levels since 2020 through the state's drinking water arsenic predictive analytic program

