

E-ENTERPRISE
for the Environment

Modernizing the business of environmental protection

Do's & Don'ts for E-Enterprise Connect! Participants

DO sign up and once matched, reach out to your meeting partner to schedule a time to chat.

DON'T hesitate to join and make a connection. This is a pilot, so we appreciate your feedback, helpful tips, or other ideas for improving the experience.

DO open up with an ice breaker (use provided examples or share your favorite) – and get to know who you are talking with in addition to what they're working on.

DON'T overlook the importance of building relationships – inherent to E-Enterprise, open dialogue and trusted coalitions are what support real program change.

DO share your experience, best practices, advice – related to E-Enterprise projects, teams, or other innovations enhancing the implementation of or systems that support environmental programs.

DON'T share non-public information.

DO ensure your conversations stay within the bounds of ethical standards applicable to your government agency. Please work with your ethics officer, as necessary, to check for any issues.

DON'T participate if you have any 18 U.S.C. 208 financial conflict of interest or 5 C.F.R. 2635.502 issues with non-federal entities.

DO share information about EPA environmental careers, if there is interest.

DON'T use this time to search for new jobs!

DO contact Brooke Morales, EPA, if you have any questions or need assistance.

DON'T delay! Join now!